

"A RAKE'S PROGRESS" BY WILLIAM HOGARTH

Set of eight early 19th century engravings newly framed in red lacquer. The morality tale follows Tom Rackwell, a young man who inherits money and through lack of experience and misguided influences makes a series of roguish decisions that ultimately lead him from debtors' prison to the madhouse.

W: 21.5" D: .5" H: 19.75"

AM1709 $4500.00

138 EAST 74TH STREET, NEW YORK, NY 10021

212 288 2221 INFO@KRBNYC.COM